What is Mooditj?

Mooditj is a fun, interactive education program for Aboriginal young people aged 10-14 years. It was developed in consultation with Aboriginal people from across WA.

Young people learn about:

- Identity – growing a strong sense of themselves
- Respectful relationships
- Understanding feelings
- Speaking up
- Goals and staying on track
- Puberty
- What becoming a young parent might mean to both families
- Making decisions about sex, consent and their rights
- Contraception and STI prevention
- Bringing it all together

The full program is 10 sessions of 1 hour each. The program can be run in many ways – e.g. 1 or 2 sessions a week, or over a few days in a holiday program or camp. The first 5 (or 6) sessions can also be run as a short program.

If you and your organisation can commit to run a Mooditj group, you may be eligible for a discount!

You need:

- Support from your organisation to run a Mooditj program – at least 5 sessions
- At least one other trained Mooditj leader. One leader needs to be Aboriginal.

Apply now for:

- Reduced fee of $200 for Aboriginal community organisations
- Reduced fee of $350 for non-Aboriginal organisation working in partnership with an Aboriginal community organisation, or with a letter of support from a local Aboriginal community organisation.

SHQ may be able to assist with Mooditj resource kits.

Contact Katrina Duncan at katrina.duncan@shq.org.au or 9227 6177 for an application form or more information.

If it is vital to your role and community that you run Mooditj and you still need assistance with fees, please contact Kat Duncan.
